Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID-19)

The Cal OES State Operations Center (SOC) activated 03/02/20 at 0700 hours in support of the California Department of Public Health (CDPH) Medical Health Coordination Center's (MHCC) statewide response to COVID-19. Cal OES will continue to provide resource coordination for the COVID-19 event, as well as situation status reporting and advance planning across multiple areas.

Situation Overview

- California State of Emergency Proclamation
 - On 03/04/20, Governor Gavin Newsom declared a State of Emergency for California, as a result of the global COVID-19 outbreak that began in December 2019, to make additional resources available, formalize emergency actions already underway across multiple state agencies and departments, and help the state prepare for broader spread of COVID-19.
- Global Health Advisory
 - On 08/06/20, in close coordination with the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), the Department of State lifted the Global Level 4 Health Advisory. The Global Advisory, initially put in place on 03/19/20, advised U.S. citizens to avoid all international travel due to the global impact of COVID-19. For more information visit: https://www.state.gov/.
- State Executive Order N-33-20
 - On 08/28/20, California introduced a blueprint for reducing COVID-19 in the state with revised criteria for loosening and tightening restrictions on activities by counties. Visit Blueprint for a Safer Economy for more information and to check the status of a county. This blueprint included a health equity metric to be used along with other metrics to determine a county's tier. The purpose of Equity Metric is to ensure California reopens its economy safely by reducing disease transmission in all communities.

WEATHER OF CONCERN

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA

- Snow above 4,000 feet tonight and Monday. Heavy snowfall above 7,000 feet.
 - 10 to 14 inches of snow are in the Sierra Nevada above 4,000 feet with 18 to 24 inches of snow likely above 7,000 feet.
- Low chance of debris flows and/or flash flooding on/near some of the 2020 burn areas due to rainfall. Primary areas of concern are the Dolan Fire burn scar in the Santa Lucia Mountains of Monterey County.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

- Snow levels will fall to as low as 3,500 feet Monday, resulting in potentially hazardous travel conditions over the Kern County mountain passes.
- Significant travel disruptions possible in the mountains due to strong winds and snow.
 - Risk of debris flows near the recent burn scars. Minor urban flooding possible elsewhere.
- Storm system from the northwest will bring periods of potentially significant rain and mountain snow.
- Light showers could begin tonight. Periods of heavy rain showers expected through the day Monday. Moderate rain showers could linger into late Monday night.

WEATHER KEY POINTS

12/27/20 - 01/02/21

Sunday-Monday Night

- The next weather system will impact mainly the central and southern portions of the state, though some lighter precipitation is also possible across northern California. Potential impacts include:
 - Locally heavy precipitation over the central and southern Sierra as well as southern California mountains, with a few thunderstorms also possible at times
 - Heavy accumulating snowfall generally above 4,000-5,000 feet will lead to travel impacts
 - · Light snow accumulations with travel impacts possible on lower passes, including the Grapevine
 - Minor mud slides or debris flows possible in the vicinity of recent burn scars, especially if heavier rain rates develop. Some minor urban flooding also possible across southern California.
- Periods of high surf and an increased rip current threat will exist Sunday into early Tuesday for coastal areas of southern California

Tuesday-Saturday

- Dry weather statewide Tuesday and Wednesday
- Next storm system expected to bring additional precipitation to northern California late Wednesday through Thursday
- A series of storm systems will likely continue across primarily northern California through next weekend and into the beginning of next week
